The adventure begins in Christchurch, where the modernity of the city seamlessly blends with its historic charm. Leaving Christchurch, the tour takes a scenic route to Akaroa, a charming French-inspired town nestled on the Banks Peninsula. The journey continues through Moana, where the serene Lake Brunner reflects the surrounding Southern Alps, creating a picture-perfect scene. Hokitika, renowned for its greenstone (pounamu) carving, provides a cultural interlude before reaching Punakaiki. Here, the Pancake Rocks and blowholes showcase the wild beauty of the West Coast, a natural spectacle that captivates visitors.
