So you found cheap flights to Europe from Australia - now what? If you've always wanted to tick Germany, Austria, the Czech Republic and Hungary off on your travel bucket list, this 11-day adventure through Central Europe is both affordable and insightful.

Begin your adventure in Berlin, the vibrant capital of Germany, where history, culture, and modernity blend seamlessly. Start by exploring iconic landmarks such as the Brandenburg Gate, the Reichstag Building, and the remnants of the Berlin Wall. Dive into the city's complex past at the Holocaust Memorial and the Berlin Wall Memorial. For art lovers, Museum Island offers a rich collection of world-class museums. Berlin's neighbourhoods, such as Kreuzberg and Mitte, showcase a diverse culinary scene and cutting-edge street art, giving you a glimpse of the city's dynamic creative energy.

Next, journey to Dresden, a city known for its Baroque beauty and artistic treasures. Stroll through the Altstadt (Old Town), where you can admire the magnificently restored Frauenkirche, the Semper Opera House, and the Zwinger Palace, with its stunning gardens and art collections. Along the Elbe River, you'll find breathtaking views of the skyline. Dresden's cultural depth is complemented by its surrounding nature, including the nearby Saxon Switzerland National Park, perfect for a scenic hike or boat ride along the

Elbe.

Travel onward to Prague, the fairy-tale capital of the Czech Republic, where Gothic, Renaissance, and Baroque architecture create an enchanting atmosphere. Begin at the Old Town Square, home to the Astronomical Clock and Týn Church, and make your way across the historic Charles Bridge, lined with statues. Visit Prague Castle, one of the largest castle complexes in the world, and enjoy panoramic views of the city. Don't miss the opportunity to experience the city's vibrant café culture and its famous Czech beer in one of Prague's many beer gardens.

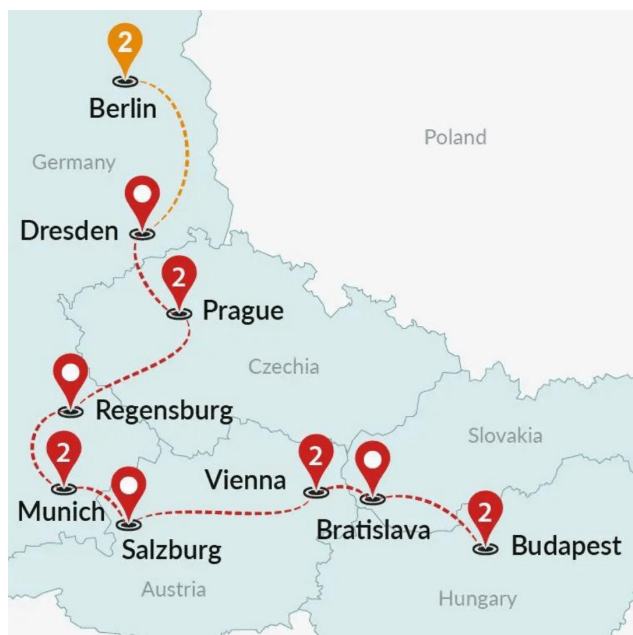

From Prague, continue to Regensburg, a charming medieval city situated on the Danube River. A UNESCO World Heritage Site, Regensburg offers well-preserved Romanesque and Gothic architecture, such as the Regensburg Cathedral and the Stone Bridge, which dates back to the 12th century. Take a leisurely walk through the old town, with its narrow alleyways and quaint squares, or enjoy a riverside meal overlooking the Danube. Regensburg's blend of history and relaxed atmosphere makes it a delightful stop before heading to the Bavarian capital of Munich.

Munich, known for its beer gardens, royal palaces, and proximity to the Alps, provides a quintessential Bavarian experience. Visit the famous Marienplatz and catch the Glockenspiel performance before exploring the English Garden, one of Europe's largest urban parks. Stop by the Nymphenburg Palace or the BMW Museum for a taste of the city's royal and modern heritage. If you're visiting in the fall, Munich's Oktoberfest is a must for beer lovers, offering a lively atmosphere and a chance to experience Bavarian culture at its finest.

Continue your journey through Austria, starting in Salzburg, the birthplace of Mozart and a city known for its baroque charm and Alpine scenery. In Vienna, explore grand imperial palaces such as Schönbrunn and Hofburg, and enjoy a classical music performance at one of the city's renowned concert halls.

Afterwards, make a quick stop in Bratislava, Slovakia's capital, where medieval and modern blend effortlessly, before concluding your trip in Budapest. Here, soak in the thermal baths, marvel at the majestic Parliament Building, and enjoy views of the Danube from Buda Castle or Fisherman's Bastion, rounding out your Central European adventure.

Itinerary

Day 1

Berlin

Greetings from Berlin! This beautiful metropolis is the capital city of Germany, and is considered to be one of the greenest in Europe. As you arrive, join the welcome meeting at the hotel lobby at 6:00pm. Later on, you can get to know your fellow travellers in the optional group dinner. You can then immerse yourself in the lively nocturnal atmosphere of Berlin at your own pace.

Accommodation: 4-Star Hotel Park Inn, Holiday Inn City West, Hotel Mecure or similar

Day 2

Berlin

Start your adventure in Central Europe with a guided tour of Berlin, beginning with a visit to the historic Reichstag building, which has housed the German Parliament since its construction in 1894. Proceed to the iconic Brandenburg Gate, a symbol once emblematic of the city's division during the Cold War era. Following the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989, the gate has transformed into a powerful symbol of German unity, alongside the controversial Checkpoint Charlie.

As you explore the city, cruise along the elegant Unter den Linden Boulevard and Kurfurstendamm, a renowned avenue that has long been one of Berlin's most iconic thoroughfares. Pass by notable landmarks such as the German State Opera House and the Baroque Deutscher Dom (German Cathedral), a magnificent structure dating back to the 1700s. In the early afternoon, immerse yourself in Berlin's hidden past with a dedicated tour, peeling back the layers of history to reveal remnants of the city's transformative journey. Later in the day, you can join the optional Postdam City Tour with Sanssouci Palace.

Optional Activities & Entrance Fees

Postdam City Tour with Sanssouci Palace - 50 EUR

Berlin 🚗 Dresden 🚗 Prague

After a hearty breakfast, travel from Berlin to Dresden, renowned for its impressive artistic masterpieces and Baroque architectural wonders. Although significant portions of this city fell victim to wartime destruction, meticulous restoration efforts have restored its former splendour, notably showcased in landmarks such as the Royal Palace and its museum housing treasures dating back to the 1720s. Your guided walking tour will lead you to iconic sites such as the Zwinger Palace, the Semper Opera, and the unmistakable Dresden Frauenkirche, the Church of Our Lady, meticulously reconstructed from rubble. As the day comes to a close, we travel on to Prague and check in to your hotel. You can join the optional Medieval Dinner Show in an actual cave for a unique experience in the Czech Republic.

Optional Activities & Entrance Fees

Medieval Cave Dinner & Show - 55 EUR

Accommodation: 4-Star Hotel Duo, Hotel Kinsky Fountain or similar

Meals: Breakfast

Prague

Rise and shine, we're in Prague! Today we start with a guided walking tour, leading you through the picturesque Lesser Town (Malá Strana), also known as the charming Little Quarter. Immerse yourself in the ambience of this historic area, characterised by ancient burgher houses and winding, quaint side streets. As you stroll across the iconic Charles Bridge - Europe's venerable stone bridge - marvel at the breathtaking views that unfold before you, leading you to the heart of Prague's medieval centre, the Old Town. This is where you'll find the medieval charm of Prague, as you explore its cobbled streets and immerse yourself in the vibrant atmosphere of Old Town Square. Embark on a guided tour to the hilltop Prague Castle complex, the former regal residence of Bohemian kings. Discover the magnificence of St Vitus Cathedral, the hallowed space where kings were crowned, and be treated to spectacular vistas offering panoramic views of the entire city below. This comprehensive exploration promises to unveil the rich tapestry of Prague's history, architecture, and cultural heritage. In the afternoon, you can join the optional Communism Nuclear Bunker Tour or retreat back to the hotel for a well earned rest.
